An aerial photograph showing a vast, dense pile of waste. The waste is a mix of colors and textures, including brown paper, black and white plastic, and various pieces of trash. The overall appearance is that of a large-scale waste management or recycling site. In the top left corner, there is a semi-transparent white box containing the text 'Precious Plastic Idee'.

PRECIOUS

This advertisement features a large, colorful pile of various plastic waste items, including bottles, containers, and food packaging, filling the lower half of the window. The background is a blurred view of a building's interior. The logo 'ROOM ON THE ROOF de Bovenwoning' is positioned in the upper center, and the word 'PRECIOUS' is written in large, white, bold letters across the bottom of the pile.

PLASTIC

This advertisement features a single, crumpled piece of plastic waste, possibly a bottle cap or a small fragment, resting on a white rectangular base in the center of the window. The background is a blurred view of a building's interior. The logo 'ROOM ON THE ROOF de Bovenwoning' is positioned in the upper center, and the word 'PLASTIC' is written in large, black, bold letters below the plastic piece.
